

For Immediate Release

Contact:

Sarah Cullen
sarah@sidecarpr.com
303-931-1910

John Madden Company Adds A Dozen New Pieces to MADDEN Museum of Art in Greenwood Village

Free Museum Aims To Make Art More Accessible to Local Residents

DENVER (Oct. 13, 2015) – Greenwood Village, Colo.-based commercial developer John Madden Company (www.johnmaddenco.com) announced it has added 12 new pieces to the MADDEN Museum of Art located in the Palazzo Verdi building at 6363 South Fiddler's Green Circle in Greenwood Village.

Among the new pieces unveiled, are the Woman in Red Hat, Federico Zandomeneghi; Missouri Spring, Thomas Hart Benton; Interior with Red Jacket, Daniel Sprick.

“John Madden Company has always been about developing and managing commercial spaces that add value to the community and one of the best examples of our mission in action is the MADDEN Museum of Art,” said John Madden Company CEO Blair Madden Bui. “The museum is free to the public and features more than thirty pieces in total spanning a variety of genres. We can’t wait to show off these new pieces to our tenants and neighbors.”

New pieces just added to the MADDEN Museum of Art collection include:

Pinocchio, Jim Dine
Dark Legs, Wide Eyes, 2008
Enamel and stain on wood

Sap Gathering, Anna Mary Robertson
"Grandma" Moses
Mixed Media on Masonite, 1954

Cosmic Assortment, Peter Anton
Mixed Media, 2015

English Setters, Edmund Henry Osthaus
Watercolor on paper

Saussurea II, Hung Liu
Mixed Media, 2014

Evening, George William Sotter
Oil on canvas

At Mount Desert Island, Maine, Alfred
Thompson Bricher
Oil on Canvas, 1873

Anna Arranging Flowers, J. Alden Weir
Oil on canvas

Crossroads, Guy Pène du Bois
Oil on Canvas

Reunion, Joseph Raffael
Watercolor on paper, 2014-15

Portrait of a Little Girl, Frank Duveneck
Oil on canvas, 1892

Giraffes, Ricardo Breceda
Metal

The MADDEN Museum of Art is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.

John Madden Company

About John Madden Company

Established in the late 1960s, John Madden Company develops and manages commercial spaces that enhance the surrounding community, through art and the built environment. Family owned and operated in inception, the John Madden Company has built over 100 million square feet in Colorado, Nebraska, Arizona, California, Michigan, Wyoming and Iowa. The John Madden Company offers completely integrated real estate services, including land acquisition, project management, brokerage and leasing, tenant finish, construction management, and property management. By Focusing on innovative architecture, and top quality materials and construction, all of John Madden Company's properties are LEED certified that last and perform for the life of the building. For more information about John Madden Company, visit www.johnmaddenco.com.

###